Join us for an enlightening luncheon with Dr. Powell

Dr. Powell's journey from Indiana to Africa is a testament to his dedication to "Training African Surgeons in Africa." Discover the impactful work of the Pan-African Academy of Christian Surgeons (PAACS), a non-denominational, multinational organization that equips African physicians with surgical expertise and fosters their commitment to remaining in Africa. Dr. Powell will share how PAACS not only equips African physicians with surgical skills but also nurtures their commitment to remain on the continent, sharing not only medical expertise but also the love and gospel of Jesus Christ with their patients. Don't miss this opportunity to hear this powerful testament to the impact of medical training and compassionate outreach in Africa.
