

Men's Life Luncheon...

Wednesday, April 1, 2026

Noon to 1:00 p.m.

It's time to take a break from the office, have some lunch, and enjoy great fellowship!

Something significant appears to be stirring among the next generation on the Indiana University campus. Many of us have already seen that faith on display through members of IU's national championship football team and other student-athletes who have spoken openly about what God is doing in their lives. But they are not the only ones. Across campus, students are stepping forward with a renewed seriousness about faith and a desire to bring others together around the message of Jesus.

One expression of that movement is the upcoming event A Night with the Son, a student-led worship gathering coming to Assembly Hall on April 8.

This luncheon is an opportunity for the men of Men's Life to hear firsthand from some of these young leaders. Come listen to their stories, ask questions, and learn what is happening spiritually among students at IU—and consider how we can stand behind them.

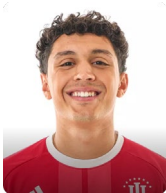

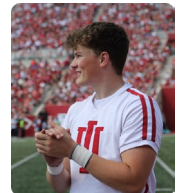

A Night with the Son

One night. One campus. One Savior.

Stuart Reimers is the founder of A Night with the Son, a ministry focused on uniting campus ministries and sharing the gospel with college students. A senior at Indiana University studying Finance and Real Estate, he serves on the student leadership team of Greek InterVarsity. He also helps oversee nearly 40 fraternity and sorority Bible studies across campus.

Hayden King is a member of the Indiana University Cheerleading Team who helps create high-energy game day experiences and build school spirit across campus. He is pursuing a double major in Finance and Management Information Systems at the Kelley School of Business. Through his role with IU Athletics, he regularly engages students and fans across campus.

Alex Barger is a student-athlete on the Indiana University men's soccer team. A Big Ten Tournament Champion and two-time Big Ten regular season champion, he has earned multiple conference honors for both athletic and academic excellence. As a student at IU's Kelley School of Business, he represents the leadership and character being developed among student-athletes on campus.

Nick Frische is co-founder of BPN Solutions, a custom software company focused on helping businesses operate more effectively through technology and automation. A graduate of Indiana University's Luddy School of Informatics and currently completing a master's degree in Data Science, he volunteers with Greek InterVarsity. He discipless fraternity men and helps launch Bible studies across campus.

What is Men's Life?

Men's Life exist to support men in their walk with Christ. We come together to discuss the issues and problems that are common to men, to support each other, pray for on another, and glorify God.
